FRESH OHIO NEWS

WRITTEN BY "THE OLD RELIABLE" GAZETTE'S CORRESPONDENTS.

What Our People Are Doing Each Week—Church, Personal, Social, Lodge, Literary and Musical—Marriages, Deaths, Etc.

CINCINNATI.—The regular Republican organization of Hamilton County, Ohio, has endorsed Attorney Wm. B. Bush of Cincinnati, for the Legislature. Bush is a prominent attorney of our group, and is the first colored man to receive the endorsement from this county for some years.—W. P. Dabney, editor of our local race publication, The Union, returned, the first of last week, from a several day's visit in Cleveland.

YOUNGSTOWN.—Men's day exercises, Sunday, at Oak Hill Ave. A. M. E. church, were a splendid success, the pastor preaching an exceptional sermon in the morning. An excellent dinner was served. In the afternoon, Rev. Saul A. Lucas of Cleveland delivered a very interesting and helpful message. In the evening, Rev. P. H. Hill of Third Baptist church, his congregation and choir, held forth, he being the speaker and making three very able ones during the day.—If you want the real race news take "The Old Reliable" Gazette. It tells it to you without fear or favor, tell your friends and acquaintances. Keep up to date!

CORRESPONDENTS must mail all letters for publication at their main postoffice sufficiently early on Sunday or Monday of each week to have them reach The Gazette office on Tuesday morning, and always write their names and that of their city or town on the outside of the wrapper about returned copies, if proper credit for them is desired. Lists of names, wedding presents, programs, obituary notices, inquiries for relatives and advertisements of all kinds, including items announcing entertainment to be held in the near future, must be paid for in advance at the rate of 20 cents a line, six words to a line. Our rates for display advertisements will be sent on application.

STEUBENVILLE.—Sunday morning, May 25, historic old Quinn Memorial A. M. E. Chapel dedicated its new church edifice, Rt. Rev. W. H. Heard of Philadelphia, bishop of this the Third Episcopal district, preaching the sermon. In the afternoon, Gov. Myers Y. Cooper featured the service, with his messenger, Bart. J. Guyder, historian of the church, reading a carefully prepared account of the doings of the 107-year old religious organization. Chas. D. Simeral and Mrs. Wilma Sinclair Levan delivered congratulatory addresses at the close of the service and the choir rendered a fine program. Rev. R. E. Hutchinson is pastor of Quinn Chapel. The dedicatory affair was a splendid success and all our people here are justly proud of the new church.

CADIZ.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams and Edw. Johnson of Columbus visited relatives here, Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ramsey of Akron, Mrs. Arthur Redmond of Cleveland and Miss Virginia Redmond of Canton visited Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redmond, Sunday.—Master Glenn Brooks has returned to Cleveland. He spent the winter with his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Lucas.—The Married Ladies' club gave a covered-dish supper in honor of the pastor, Rev. C. R. Goggins, Wednesday evening. A birthday cake, with lighted candles and tokens of congratulations, added to the pleasure of the evening.—Atty. and Mrs. John Ballard, daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Forbes of Cleveland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ballard.—The funeral of Mrs. Louise Earl, age 18, of Canton, was held from St. James A. M. E. church, last week Friday afternoon. Mrs. Emma Reed, J. S. DOINGS OF THE RACE.

The Hon. Oscar DePriest has asked Congress to grant Matthew Henson, the only person alive to have reached the north pole on foot, a medal.

The U. S. government still holds $21,624 deposited, some years ago, by Marcus Garvey as a part payment on a vessel never delivered to his Black Star Steamship line.

"Cleveland's citizens" did NOT "award" Hawkins, Scott, Abbott, Overton, Vann and Martin "parchment scrolls of distinction." See articles elsewhere in this paper.

J. Finley Wilson, G. E. R. of the Elks, received probable fractures of ribs and other injuries, and his wife was severely injured in an automobile accident in Washington, D. C., last week.

The U. S. Supreme court, on Monday, May 26, 1930, upheld the decision of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina holding the Richmond Va. segregation ordinance invalid.

Luis Borno, ex-president of Haiti, has landed in New York City, after flying from Port-au-Prince to Miami, Fla., in an aeroplane. It was too hot for Luis in Haiti, and very properly so.

OBERLIN INVITES PUBLIC

To Attend the College and Community Annual Illumination Night Festivities — Everything Free and All Welcome.

Oberlin, O.—The college and community will celebrate historic annual illumination night, June 16. There will be no charge for anything on the program. The Campus will be decorated with thousands of Chinese lanterns. The business section will be elaborately trimmed with colored electric lights and the residential part of the town will be illuminated. There will be two open air band concerts on the Campus from seven to nine o'clock. During this time the Dudley Allen Art Museum will be thrown open to the public who are invited to see the fine paintings in the picture gallery, the rare oriental rugs, the Chinese and Japanese art objects, carved ivories, etc. At nine o'clock the famous alumni costume parade will form with scores of decorated floats, marching units in unique costume, bands of music, and novel lighting effects. After parading around the campus, in the glow of colored fires and aviation flares, the alumni will gather on the terrace of Finney Chapel for an hour of cheering, singing, and class stunts. All visiting automobiles will be parked free during the evening, under guard. Oberlin plans to keep open house, and invites the public to share in its annual jollification.

GIVES CHURCH PROPERTY.

St. Louis, Mo.—To help in the promotion of a day-nursery for children of pre-school age, Mrs. Annie E. Malone, proprietor of Poro College, has just given to St. James

A. M. E. church of this city a deed to a piece of property adjoining the church and opposite Poro College, valued at $3,500. Mrs. Malone is a member of the church and our leading philanthropist, a fine Christian woman.

BAPTIST ATTACKS RACIAL PREJUDICE!

Dr. A. R. Petty, in a Convention Sermon, Also Calls for Christian Unity, Etc.

Dr. A. Ray Petty, pastor of First Baptist church, Kansas City, Mo., preaching the sermon of the Northern Baptist Convention in Public Hall, Sunday morning, declared for pacifism, the abolition of race prejudice, the Christianization of industry, and Christian unity. His plea for Christian unity came close upon the heels of the action by which the convention went on record as opposed to any closer co-operation with the Disciples of Christ looking toward the eventual union.

"The world is still impenetrated with the age-old hatreds of race," Dr. Petty said. "The fallacy of a chosen people still inheres in much of our modern nationalism. The protagonists of Nordic superiority raise their voices in behalf of a super-Nordic humanity. We still draw our color lines. We are antagonistic when we are forced into proximity with those whom we consider, in our arrogance, to be beneath us. However, this is changing. But how much more rapidly could we speed the progress if we were standing where Jesus stands. We may continue to hold ourselves aloof, but we are holding ourselves away from our brothers, away from our Christ. It may seem expedient, it may be policy, it may be diplomacy, it may make for seeming progress to keep our lines of segregation and to refrain from the comity of co-operative fellowship. It may be all these, but under God it is not Christian. Where does Jesus stand in our divided Protestantism today? This is a question of immediate import. He stood for unity. If we believe that he is the 'same yesterday, today and forever', then we must believe that there he still stands. Christianity has given itself to one shepherd, but we are in many folds. Rituals, creeds, organizational differences and denominational rivalries separate us. The time has come for us to discover our eternal agreements; to merge our faith in one great Christian endeavor. Some day we must be one as He prayed that we might be, even as He and the Father are one. It is given to us in our organization to speed that triumphant achievement. Bigotry is disappearing. Would that all our rivalries of denomination might cease, so that we might develop a dynamic of mutuality in our endeavor to win the world for Him."

GOLD STAR MOTHERS 55 REFUSE "JIM CROW"!

New York City.—The N. A. A. C. P. has announced that 55 of our Gold Star mothers have declined, to make the pilgrimage to the graves of their sons in Europe, under rules the War Department has laid down providing for segregation by color. The mothers have appealed to President Hoover to abolish the ruling, the announcement says. Their petition terms the War Department's attitude a "gratuitous insult." "Twelve years after the armistice," our Gold Star mothers say, "the high principles of 1918 seem to have been forgotten. We who gave and who are colored are insulted by the implications that we are not fit persons to travel with other bereaved ones. Instead of making up parties of Gold Star mothers on the basis of geographical location, we are set aside as a separate group, 'jim crowed', segregated and insulted."

BY THE U. S. SUPREME COURT

"Bread Cast Upon the Waters" by Former Councilman Fleming, Fifteen Years Ago—Cohen, Howard, Bishop Carey, DePriest and Others.

Washington, D. C.—County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller of Cleveland, O., lost his fight here, Monday, to send former Councilman Thomas D. Fleming to the Ohio Penitentiary at once to begin serving his sentence, when the U. S. Supreme Court ignored his motion to dismiss Fleming's appeal. Miller "never had a chance." The refusal of the court to recognize his motion means that Fleming's appeal to it will not be taken up until it reconvenes, Oct. 6. Monday was the court's last day before the summer adjournment. Miller and Martin, the latter Fleming's attorney, left immediately after adjournment of court for Cleveland. Miller had been here since Thursday and Martin since Friday. The two court rules that headed off Miller's effort here were that which said no new motions would be considered the week before adjournment, and that which allowed thirty days to elapse after the filing of an appeal for submission of a jurisdictional statement. These rules he should have known of. Martin had the jurisdictional statement prepared and waited here to present it in case Miller's attempt was successful. Fleming will be out on bond until the Supreme Court disposes of his case. It is his last court resort in his long fight, to win freedom, since his conviction in February, 1929.

AN APPRECIATION

Sent Former Councilman Thos. W. Fleming By the Editor of a Leading Race Paper, "The Chicago Whip."

Chicago, Ill., May 23, 1930.
Mr. Thomas W. Fleming,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Fleming:—Permit me at this time, probably the darkest hour in your public career, to express to you my heartfelt sympathy. It has been my privilege to meet you occasionally on your visits to Chicago, but I am certain that you would not remember me. Our meetings were only casual and did not admit of anything that would cause you to recall them. This letter is prompted by virtue of the fact that you did me a kind favor when I came to your city a perfect stranger in the year 1915. I had at that time completed a business course at Oberlin College and came to Cleveland looking for a job. The outlook was everything but hopeful and encouraging. I knew no one there that could be of the slightest help to me and my finance was extremely low, as is the case with all colored students who work their way through college. I had exhausted all possible avenues in my quest for a job, and encountered color barriers on every hand. I finally wandered, unannounced, into your office which I believe at that time was on the second floor of a building in Central Ave. You gave me the heartiest, warmest and most congenial reception during that scorching summer afternoon when I felt beaten and discouraged. Everything seemed against me. You talked with me fully an hour about the trials and tribulations that you confronted during your early days as a law student, and bade me to treat my own present discomfiture to experiences that all colored boys have to meet when struggling for success in a world built on white ideals. I have never forgotten that meeting because it came at a time when a young man had about reached the decision which begins with the words: "What's the use!" At the close of our conversation you gave me a letter of recommendation to the Y. M. C. A. secretary and also a dollar bill to relieve a much depleted financial condition that existed with the party of the second part. While I did not get a position in Cleveland, I charge what later success I had in a large measure to the inspirational talk I had with you on that summer afternoon. I cannot force myself to believe that the principles of Tom Fleming are any different today than they were on the day that I first met him. On the contrary I would grant that years had mellowed them. The many years of public service you have enjoyed have brought you closer to human sufferings and needs and they could only broaden your benevolent spirit; not narrow it. To face a reverse in life is no easy task. You may imagine that "thumbs are down on you," or that you are walking alone. But don't feel this way. The darkest hour is just before the break of dawn, and it is my sincerest hope that this line of the poet will symbolize your case. It may be true at this time that friends of former years, whom you have doubtless helped, are not as near and close as they should be. Overlook that as a defect in human nature, especially among Negroes whose cultural development has been sadly neglected. They know no better. Those who are not friends to you now never were. Those who were will always be and work along with you in the "come-back," which will surely be even if the worse comes to pass. May I point to the life of Roswell Johnson of Indiana. Four years ago he went to Atlanta. Today he is Mayor of Gary, Indiana. I wonder if the Negroes of Cleveland realize that the persecution of Tom Fleming is a persecution also to their political ambitions and advancement? I wonder do they see in the trial and conviction of Tom Fleming that it's a "white stab" at the heart of Negro leadership? Innumerable white men who preach that "white is honest—black dishonest" will regard it a noble victory. I say these things because I know the weakness of Negroes when white men enter the arena to divide and rule. The defeat of Negro leadership by white interest has been glaringly focused within the past few years. Let's call for proof:

Walter Cohen of New Orleans was first to feel it. He was accused of defrauding the government. He was acquitted.

Perry Howard was indicted in Mississippi. He was acquitted.

Redmond and his son of Jackson, Miss., were indicted and acquitted, and are now residents of another state.

Bishop Carey is facing trial in Chicago now.

Oscar DePriest was indicted and acquitted.

Dan Jackson was indicted and died under the strain.

Ben Davis of Atlanta has to travel the street of Atlanta under body guard.

Tidrington of Indiana was slain and later painted with slime by the defense lawyer at the trial of his slayer who is free today.

And now it's Tom Fleming of Cleveland.

What more awakening could Negroes of any city want?

You are making a game fight and the greatest virtue of it is that you have a splendid wife who is bearing the burden with you. Of her, too much cannot be said. You are fortunate in having her with you at this hour. I trust this letter did not bore you. I have had the urge to write it for several days to repay in a small way the kind favor you granted me fifteen years ago. I wish that I could do more. With kindest regards, I have the honor to remain

Yours very sincerely,
Lucius C. Harper,
Editor, "The Chicago Whip."

DENIED A LICENSE

The Lad Was Arrested for Living With His Girl.

Providence, R. I.—On a serious charge, involving a 15-year-old white girl, Howard Douglas, age 21, was found guilty after a short trial in district court, last week Tuesday, and held to the grand jury in $1,000 bail. Testimony revealed that Douglas and the girl sometime ago had sought a marriage license but failed to obtain it. Hence, they lived together secretly. Then the young couple again sought a license but were arrested at the license bureau in the city hall when police responded to a call from a prejudiced clerk who would not believe the girl was old enough to marry. She admitted her minority, but emphatically stated her willingness to marry her sweetheart.

Find "Dead" Convict Alive!

Columbus, O., May 31.—Officials at Ohio penitentiary today found Peter Farenzo, age 69, Summit county Negro, among convicts in the prison after he had been listed as one of the 320 who died in the fire of April 21. Identity of the person buried in Eastlawn cemetery as Farenzo was undetermined. Farenzo was serving a life term from Summit county for first degree murder.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1930.

The economic situation, not only in Ohio, but thruout the country, is going to "cut a wide figure" in this fall's election results. Mark our prediction.

Ed Bang, chief-sport writer of The Cleveland News, gave Robert A. Corom, age 73, of Lakewood, better known as "Bob," a splendid write-up including his portrait in Saturday or Sunday's Cleveland Daily News. This was in honor of Bob's forty years' service at the Cleveland baseball park, where since April 11, 1890, he has been employed, and witnessed something like three thousand games. It is hardly necessary for us to say that all of the things said by Ed Bang of our long time friend, Robert A. Corom, are fully deserved.

OUR GOLD STAR MOTHERS.

The protest of fifty-five of our Gold Star mothers, filed, last week, with President Hoover, against their "jim-crow" segregation on a pilgrimage to their sons' and husbands' graves in European cemeteries and battle fields, was followed promptly with an announcement from the War Department, issued thru Acting Secretary Davidson, to the effect that "the racial grouping decided upon after the most careful consideration of the interests of the pilgrims themselves would be observed." This was intended to forestall, if possible, any favorable consideration by President Hoover of our Gold Star mothers' protest. Davidson added that "there was no discrimination whatever between the various groups; each group to receive equal accommodations, care and consideration," and that "separation into groups was necessary to provide suitable accommodations for all." All of which is nothing but hokum, pure and simple. It is true that the white Gold Star mothers who made and will make the pilgrimage to Europe were divided into groups, but not on racial grounds as in the case of our Gold Star mothers. This fact, Davidson's hokum seeks in vain to cover up. It surely ought not to fool President Hoover, as intended, who has only to speak the right word to convince Acting Secretary Davidson that his "racial grouping" will not be permitted. Will the President speak the words? We shall soon learn.

IGNORED BY THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Just as The Gazette predicted in its issue, last week, the U. S. Supreme Court turned down flat County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller's "political gesture"—his request for a immediate decision as to whether "the next sitting," in Judge Carrington T. Marshall's Ohio Supreme court stay of execution of sentence in the Fleming case, meant the October term of the U. S. Supreme court or its week's meeting which opened, May 26, and closed, Monday, June 2. The court simply ignored Miller's "motion" for an elucidation entirely unnecessary. It knew that Judge Marshall, an exceptionally able jurist, knew what he was doing when he wrote "the next sitting of the U. S. Supreme court"; that that expression could not possibly be construed as meaning "the next meeting" of that august body, and of course, it did not expect that the local prosecuting attorney would carry his political "playing to the gallery" (in an effort to assist his campaign for re-nomination and re-election, this fall) clear to the Nation's capital. What a harrowing experience it must be for our doughty county prosecutor to be so publically ignored by what is frequently referred to as the most important one of the three co-ordinate branches of the greatest American government. And by the same token, we will not withhold an expression of appreciation of the good work done to date by former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming's attorney, Alex. H. Martin, and Martin's legal advisers.

And Judge F. H. Kramer's decision will stand too, now!

BOYD AND HOPKINS WON'T DO.

When Dr. Chas. H. Garvin was building his home in Wade Park Ave., several years ago, a miserable effort, which was given entirely too much publicity in the local and other Ohio daily newspapers, to prevent Garvin's occupancy of his home when finished, was led by Atty. Wm. H. Boyd, chairman of a committee of the prejudiced residents of Wade Park Ave. in the vicinity of the Garvin home. This places Boyd, as a probable candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator, in the same category as the other probable local candidate, Wm. R. "City Hospital" Hopkins, as far as the 150,000 or more male and female Ohio Afro-American voters are concerned. Wm. H. "Wade Park Ave." Boyd and Hopkins are infinitely more objectionable to them than Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch, who does not seem to have committed such a terrible crime (from a racial viewpoint), when he voted for the confirmation of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina, as newspaper publications of several weeks ago indicated and the near future will make clearer, we feel sure.

THAT "SCROLL OF DISTINCTION"

Cleveland, June 3, 1930.

Mr. Chas. W. Greene,
129 Southern Ave.,
Springfield, O.

Dear Friend:—

I have been unable to learn of any regularly constituted citizens' committee, local or otherwise, purported to have J. Walter Wills, Sr., as chairman and Norman L. McGhee as secretary, that is alleged to have issued the "Scroll of Distinction" to Dr. Emmett J. Scott and Dr. John R. Hawkins of Washington, D. C., Anthony Overton and Robert S. Abbott of Chicago, Robert L. Vann of Pittsburgh and Alex. H. Martin of this city. As a matter of fact, persons alleged to have been members of said committee, have very readily assured me that they had no knowledge whatever, previous to May 31, 1930, of Wills' alleged citizens' committee authorizing him, or anyone else, to issue anything of the kind, beyond a "large folder invitation" sent to them prior to May 31, 1930, by Wills.

Therefore, the "Scroll of Distinction" given to the individuals named in the foregoing, is practically worthless because it represents the opinion, as far as Cleveland and Ohio are concerned, of but one or two persons. It certainly is a queer proceeding, to say the least, and takes what seems to me to be a very unfair advantage of Messrs. Hawkins, Scott, Abbott, Overton, Vann and possibly Martin. "The citizens of Ohio have" NOT "selected the persons named," or others, "from a growing line of leaders who have rendered and are rendering exceptional service in their respective fields, as worthy of marked commendation and honor." As an exhibition of "nerve," the issuance of those "Scrolls of Distinction" is about the most stupendous ever seen or heard of in this section of the country.

Trusting you are in good health and with best wishes always, I am sincerely,

Yours for the race,
Harry C. Smith.

OUR CINCINNATI CANDIDATE.

June 3, 1930.

Atty. Wm. B. Bush,
22 Temple Court,
Cincinnati, O.

Dear Sir and Friend:—Your letter of the 31st ult., just received.

Please accept sincerest congratulations and tell all of our people of Hamilton County to make the Republican organization's endorsement of your candidacy mean something material by voting as a unit for your election to the Ohio Assembly, on election day, in November.

The failure of the promised "Coolidge good times" to arrive during the last four years of his incumbency of office, coupled with the failure of the "promised Hoover prosperity" to arrive, to-date, has resulted in an economic condition that cannot but prove very harmful to Republican success at the polls, this fall. Add to this other and minor issues and you will appreciate fully the absolute necessity of a united effort, upon the part of our people of your county, in your behalf from now until after election, this fall. The miserable prejudice that causes our candidates to receive less votes than others on the same ticket must also be taken into account. Make this all clear to our people of Hamilton county just as soon as you can.

You will find no one in the state of Ohio who will more earnestly and honestly wish for your triumphant success on election day, this fall, than

Yours for the race,
Harry C. Smith.

P. S. Command me!

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob-violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob, and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 5.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law nas repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY!

"The Old Reliable" Gazette desires an active agent and correspondent in every city and town in Ohio and neighboring states having a number of Afro-American residents. Only a little time on Fridays or Saturdays is required to make some money.

We are especially desirous of hearing from persons in the following named cities: Springfield, Columbus, Toledo, Steubenville, Zanesville, Wilmington, Xenia, Washington C. H., Lancaster, Piqua, Lima, O., and other places, particularly in Ohio, where we have none.

Write to the editor of The Gazette, 226 West Superior Ave., Cleveland, O., and terms will be sent promptly. Our readers will oblige us greatly by sending the addresses of persons in the cities named, and others in the state to whom we can write relative to the matter.

AROUSED BY LYNCHINGS.

Commission on International Co-operation Blames Official Neglect.

Atlanta, Ga. — Pointing to four lynchings in the south in as many weeks, the commission on interracial co-operation in a statement, Monday, placed responsibility for the mob violence on "official neglect and local religious indifference."

"American lynchings probably do more than anything else to discredit Christianity at home and abroad. Practically every lynching means that some officer has neglected his duty or surrendered to the mob. Reasonable vigilance would have prevented most of them," the statement said.

GOV. SIR. WM. PHIPPS.

Boston, Mass.—The first royal governor of Massachusetts was Sir Wm. Phipps, a "Negro." The English knighthood and $1,500,000 were awarded him by the British government when he recovered gold bullion valued at many millions of dollars from a wrecked Spanish ship. In 1690, after capturing Port Royal in Nova Scotia, he was appointed first governor of the colony. Sir William, also says history, died Feb. 18, 1694, in London, England.

Wm. F. Russell married a member of the race. They had two children. She divorced him and the children were given to her mother with $10 weekly which Russell was to pay. Russell has married an Italian beauty of this city, but earns only $33 weekly. The judge has just decided that he and his wife must live on $23 weekly.

The owner and manager of it returned, recently, from Paris where he arranged to put the play on there. The "Green Pastures" players have received a medal for their excellent work.

As announced in recent issues of The Gazette, Herbert King, a member of Mt. Zion church, was ordained into the Congregational ministry at the church, Monday night, the first ordination in its 66-year history. The services began at 4:30 p. m., when the members of the ordination council assembled. Rev. C. H. Mall, retired pastor of Plymouth church, was elected moderator and Rev. Lawrie Sharp, secretary. A fellowship dinner at 6 p. m. and ordination began at 7:30. The service marked the beginning of the celebration of the church's 66th anniversary, which is to continue through June. Dr. Dan F. Bradley, pastor of Pilgrim church, preached the ordination sermon, Rev. King has assumed the pastorate of Plymouth church, Washington, D. C.

The prohibition question consumed much of the time of St. James' forum, Sunday afternoon. Several votes were taken showing desire for modification and repeal of the 18th amendment. The pastor of the church, after criticising President Hoover, said he favored giving the government until 1932 to enforce the amendment. If it fails he will be for its repeal. J. M. Brewer and Dr. J. K. Nickens opposed prohibition because, they said, more young people were drinking than ever before and violation of the amendment was breeding disrespect for law. Maj. Wm. T. Anderson (retired), former chaplain, 10th U. S. Cavalry reg., spoke for stricter enforcement and praised British methods of administering justice. S. A. Wade urged more patience, saying that all laws now considered beneficial were finally made effective by long, patient endeavor. "We read frequently of refusals to serve our people in public places but does that mean that the Ohio civil rights law, against them, should be repealed?" asked Mrs. Willa Granger. "Just because a law is disobeyed is no reason it shouldn't exist; neither does it invalidate it."

WHAT'S DOING!

The ROUNDER

HEAR! HEAR!!

Central Ave. cars, it now appears, will remain in operation, at least until the Lorain-Central bridge is completed, despite the company's request that the line be cut off because it is closely paralleled by Cedar and Scovill cars. The company finally admits that the line is not losing money, so the city council's transportation committee is not in favor of discontinuing it. Thus does The Gazette win its fight of a year, temporarily, at least.

The talk of J. Walter Wills, Sr., as a candidate for State Representative is really amusing. Where was he, last fall, when we all were "working our heads off" trying to elect "The Blossom Triplets," Mrs. Mary B. Martin and other Republicans? We do not recall ever seeing him in a single political meeting, or even hearing of his having been in attendance upon any of them, or doing anything else to help win that battle. No, Wills, like Alex. H. Martin, who favored the re-appointment of "Color-line" Dudley S. Blossom as safety director of the city of Cleveland, will not do as candidates for anything at this time, and all of our people of this community know this.

Where Was Payne? Bundy Not Wanted.

Cleveland, O., June 2, 1930.

Dear Rounder:—Sunday, June 1, 1930, the playgrounds had a circus out at Brookside Park, and Central Ave. bathhouse was among them. While I was there, looking over the crowd, to my surprise I saw Councilman Bundy. I wondered what was he doing in the 11th ward and where was Councilman Payne who lives in ward 11? Tell Bundy to stay where he belongs and not to come down in the 11th ward because he is not wanted, and if he wants a bathhouse and playground to have one built in his own ward. What is the trouble with Councilman Payne? He is never on the job.

Sincerely yours,
Republican Subscriber.

The executive committee of the N. A. A. C. P. local branch, Tuesday night, adopted a resolution opposing U. S. Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch for the Republican nomination to succeed himself and determining to vote against him in case he should win the nomination. J. Walter Wills, Sr., and Attys. Wm. R. Green, Harry E. Davis and Alex. H. Martin are said to be members of this committee. The local Republican organization will support Senator McCulloch after the primary because he will be nominated. Therefore, the action of the committee will force its members to fight the local Republican organization in opposing Senator McCulloch. Wonder how many members of the organization are members of the local N. A. A. C. P. branch executive committee? Who knows?

Dr. W. A. Method and Forrest F. Whittaker, two of Columbus' foremost citizens, were in the city for the week-end attending the "evening of outstanding achievements" given by J. Walter Wills, Sr.,—Alex. O. Taylor, Cleveland correspondent, in the Chicago Defender of May 31, 1930.

It was J. Walter Wills', all right, and apparently nobody else's. Be sure to read the letter elsewhere in this paper headed, "That Scroll of Distinction." It's sure "some scroll," too.

Breaks Interscholastic Record.

He finished in 23.6 seconds.

MIDGET OF ROAD IS MADE COLLAPSIBLE

LOUIS MEYER TO HAVE SWIFT CAR

Machine Will Have Rear-Wheel Drive and Be Driven by Spur Gear.

There has been a good deal of gossip concerning the car Louis Meyer will drive in the 1930 Indianapolis 500-mile race, but the actual facts were not disclosed until a few days ago when Alden Sampson, head of the Sampson-Meyer-Brett racing combination came into Indianapolis to arrange for quarters where the car will be built.

The car will be named the Sampson Special. Its 16-cylinder motor will be made up of two banks of eight cylinders. The car, a rear-wheel drive, will be driven by a spur gear off the rear end of a separate crankshaft for each of the banks. The cylinders will be of 2 5/16 bore by 3-inch stroke and the motor will have displacement of 201 cubic inches.

Conforms to Specifications.

Otherwise the car will conform to all the specifications of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway corporation for the 1930 race, which will start this year at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 30, as usual.

"The three of us worked for weeks on the design and the motor blocks have already been made and machine work on them is about finished," Sampson said. "Riley Brett is coming on from the coast and from then on we will go at top speed to finish the car."

Asked who would be the riding mechanic with Meyer, Sampson said he did not know. There will be a thousand requests pour into the workshop without doubt, but Sampson intimated that he considered the mechanic's seat highly important and that he might ride with Louis in the first race for two-man cars since 1922 on the greatest automobile race course in the world.

Sampson is the most picturesque figure in racing in America. He was an automobile dealer in Ohio two years ago when he met Louis Meyer. They both were men of few words, of about the same height and general build. Louis was a mechanic for Frank Elliott. Two weeks before the 1928 race Louis wired his friend in Ohio that he had a good buy in a race car if Alden had the money. Alden had it and came to Indianapolis, where the car was bought. So well did Louis justify the investment that he won first place that year. The same year Sampson bought a car from the Frank Lockhart estate and Meyer drove it into second place in the 1929 race.

Work of Trio Divided.

The work of this winning trio is well divided. Sampson watches the money end, Louis Meyer does the driving, and does it so well that he won the A. A. A. driving championship in 1928 and 1929; Brett who has worked on more winners than any other racing car specialist, has the responsibility of seeing that the car is always in tip-top shape mechanically. This rare combination has made a trio to conjure with where seconds mean thousands of dollars.

The public will be much interested to see how the 16-cylinder car—the first one of its kind for track in America—will perform. With its background it can almost be written for a place well up at the finish.

Exhaust Clears Fog in Front of an Automobile

Hot air sprayed out in front of an automobile by an attachment on the exhaust of the car has been found effective in clearing away London's time-honored fog, the American Automobile association reports.

The rising current of heated air created by the device, a recent invention, literally lifts the fog about ten feet in front of the front wheels and does it quickly enough to permit a forward speed of about fifteen miles an hour in the densest fog.

The fog lifter can be attached to any car's exhaust and is much simpler than the average windshield wiper. It has been tried out in London and is being adopted by motorists there.

Effective Motor Cut-Out Is Easily Constructed

An easily built and effective motor cut-out can be constructed from an old tin can and a few discarded parts, as shown in Fig. 3. Remove the exhaust pipe and cut a large hole in it. Cut holes in the ends of the tin can so that it will slip over the pipe. Fit one bolt as a stop and another for the spring that pulls the can back over the hole when the valve stem on the end of the cord is allowed to slide into the hole in the dash. The hole in the exhaust pipe can be cut most easily by sawing a V-shaped notch in the pipe with a hack saw. Notch area should equal pipe cross section.—Popular Science Magazine.

Watch Motor Car Brakes During Severe Weather

Most any brake adjustment will work reasonably well in warm dry weather, when roads are dry and everything works freely; but much greater care must be exercised in winter, when roads are slippery and brake bands and joints are covered with mud and ice. Have the brakes looked after frequently to be sure that they take hold evenly and the movable joints should be frequently oiled with thin penetrating oil and if possible covered to prevent mud and ice from freezing on them and locking them.

In driving, one should use the brakes very cautiously, as a sudden application of the brakes is almost sure to cause a skid, and even a slow pressure may produce the same results if the brakes are badly off in adjustment.

AUTOMOBILE HINTS

If the car has a backing light, reverse never should be used as a brake when the car is left parked. It drains the battery.

Another part the motorist must remember not to tighten too much is the water pump shaft-packing gland. The shaft must run free.

"The shoe manufacturers say we do not walk enough." This is important, we think. Whereabouts downtown do the shoe manufacturers park their cars?

Beginners are apt to overchoke the engine when starting. It is often unnecessary to use the choke at all, especially in warm weather or shortly after you have been running the car.

• • •

Motorists long have been warned not to touch the head of the speedometer and not even to let the average mechanic work on it. Speedometers are delicate instruments, like fine watches.

FROCKS OF SATIN-STRIPE SHIRTING ANSWER CALL OF YOUNG MODERNS

A MULTITUDE of lovely weaves, colorings and fascinating effects come under the caption "sports silks" this season. The best of it is, no matter how delicate their pastel blues or pinks, eggshell shades, pale greens, yellows or any of the other delectable tints, these enchanting silks, whether shantung, flat crepe or what not, are capable of being rubbed and tubbed without sacrificing an iota of their original beauty. And that's the marvel of it, that silks can be so exquisitely lovely, and at the same time so practical because they are washable, and because they yield so satisfactorily to tailored treatment.

While the list of popular sports silks is long this season, when it comes to outstanding types, the handsome striped shirtings rank among the foremost. One of the chief charms of these striped silks is their incomparable laundering qualities. The new basque stripes are especially attractive. These feature satin stripes on a dull-finish crepy background, the entire carried out in monotone pastel. The colors of these basque-stripe silks are perfect, including the much-wanted baby blue, odd shades of pink, mauve, beige and yellow. In fact they are available in any of the new summer soft subtle tones, also quite a few bright shades.

For the sleeveless tennis frock pictured the stripes are worked in a very designful manner, thus enhancing the appearance of the frock, at the same time maintaining a coveted tailored simplicity.

The summer sports story so far as the making of frocks is concerned is a continuous recital of interesting detail which has to do with such subtle touches as the new cap and puff sleeves, low decolletage suntan backs, scallops, saw-tooth edges, belts, buttons, one-piece frocks, the tuck-in blouse, pleated skirts (sometimes the costume consists of skirt, shirt and shorts), and if the skirt be not pleated then it is liable to be circular cut. Most every sports frock has its own jacket, too, which counts in its favor so far as wearableness and general utility is concerned.

There is every indication that the all-white sports costume will prove a winner as well as the pastel colored outfit.

Very frequently the frock is of washable silk, the coat topping it being a novelty woolen weave such as white basket cloth or white flannel.

COSTUMES FOR BEACH FANS MOSTLY A MATTER OF PAJAMA ENSEMBLES

VACATIONING at the beach? Well, for such fashion has an intensely interesting message in regard to that ever recurring what-to-wear problem. Fact is the clothes question for beach fans has for the most part resolved itself into a matter of pajama ensembles. And such ensembles! They are all that their name implies, ensembling as they do about every item of wearing apparel there is to ensemble from beach bags, shoes, wraps, shirts, blouses, coatees and trousers to parasols and huge hats. Wherefore it is plain to be seen that beach costuming has become an elaborated and complicated affair.

It's heaps of fun, just the same, planning one's beach togs, if for no other reason than that there's one time one may be as reckless and temperamental as one pleases, indulging in the wildest extravagances of color, fabric and design without fear of being criticized. In fact the more bizarre the merrier, seems to be the sentiment of the mode when it comes to garbing those who would stroll on the sands, take a dive or a dip in the ocean blue or loll in supreme content while they acquire a healthful suntan.

The outfit illustrated goes to show how exceedingly picturesque a beach ensemble can be. Like most of milady's costumes this pajama outfit with its matching parasol, shoes and beach bag (on the bench at her side) has made it a point to "get into print"—printed crepe in this instance suggesting Mexico in its red and orange coloring.

Very striking pajamas designed for gay beach wear fashions the trousers of navy blue crepe polka-dotted in white. The coat is made of navy blue silk with navy insignia on one arm, a white vest being embroidered with an anchor.

Pleated pajamas are quite the rage. That is, there is a flounce of knife pleating from above the knee to the ankle. The first impression is that of a skirt with a pleated flounce.

The beach hat is a very intriguing item this season, reaching proportions which are amazing, yet withal very practical as a protection from the sun. Not only are straws of every color employed for these hats but novel fabrics are conjured into wide brims and generous crowns.

PRESIDENT WM. WARE

Of the Cincinnati Division of The U. N. I. A. Issues a Statement of Facts.

Cincinnati, O. — President Wm. Ware of the local division of the U. N. I. A. has issued the following interesting and timely statement:

"The FACTS as to why I am taking out an INJUNCTION against the group of members who pulled out from Cincinnati Division, No. 146, of The Universal Negro Improvement Association, incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, and who are functioning as an unincorporated body: I am doing this so that the public of Cincinnati and vicinity will not be misled by malicious and seditious propaganda that has been and is being circulated by some of the members of the group. Some of them are saying that I am against Mr. Garvey merely because I do not agree with some of his methods of doing things. But, one can be against the ideas and methods of an individual without being against the individual. I honestly believe that Mr. Garvey is a God-sent man, and I don't believe that anyone could convince me otherwise. I know that the principles of the Universal Negro Improvement Association are sublime and in them only, lies the salvation of the Negro race. For eleven years I have been espousing and advocating the true and sacred principles of the Association and at that some of the short-sighted and underminding members who were once allied with the Association in Cincinnati Division, No. 146, have accused me of being disloyal and dishonest to the Hon. Marcus Garvey, and a traitor of the worst sort to the race. Some have gone so far as to say that I have stolen all of the money and purchased valuable properties for myself, and also sold out the Cincinnati Division to a certain white gentleman. Some of them have even gone to the courts here to see if the records would reveal properties in my name and not being able to find this to be true, they circulated the false propaganda to the effect that the same was in the name of one of my daughters and was transferred to one of my grandchildren although the records of the courts do not show where any properties were ever purchased in their names.

Now, there are many virtues involved in the matter at issue. They are: The principles of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, my good name, character and world-wide reputation as a race man. Therefore, I do not intend to allow anyone to drag these virtues in the gutter, as it were; nor will I allow this stigma to be placed on my children and grandchildren, which might be a disadvantage to them all through life, without trying to offset same, and especially after my eleven years of honest, loyal and untiring service and sacrifice for this organization. I might state further, that after certain investigations shall have been made someone has got to account for the scandalous and seditious propaganda that has been and is being circulated against me in an attempt to injure my high-standing and world-wide reputation as an advocate of right and justice for my race. It is my honest belief that the Hon. Marcus Garvey is unaware of the treacherousness of certain individuals and groups who are thus trying to divide the organization for their own personal profit and benefit. It has never been his intention to have the organization split up in different little groups but it has always been his policy to organize the Negro and not have them divided into different factions, one fighting against the other.

William Ware,
President, Cin'ti Div. Incorporated, Universal Negro Improvement Association.

GILPIN FUNERAL HELD IN HARLEM!

His Body Reinterred After Fellow Thespians Pay Tribute — "The Emperor Jones" Was Too Far Away.

New York City.—Harlem did honor, Sunday, to Charles S. Gilpin, actor. Dissatisfied with the small turnout at the funeral services held in Trenton, N. J., May 12, and his place of burial at Lambertville, N. J., friends has the body disinterred, brot here and arranged special funeral services. The little funeral parlors of Duncan Brothers were packed with stage celebrities of the race, and out in the street, hundreds gathered to hear the strains of his favorite hymn echoing into the street. There wasn't room to accommodate a fiftieth of those who wanted to share in the last rites for the well-known actor. A memorial service will be held every year, on June 1. Jesse A. Shipp, the Abraham of the cast of "The Green Pastures," and an old friend of "the Emperor Jones," explained that after the first funeral many friends of the dead actor had expressed regret that his burial had been so obscure and far from Broadway.

"We have been criticized for disturbing the dead," said Mr. Shipp, "but our friend was buried near a railroad track, where the earth rumbled and his bones could not rest in peace. It was too far away for his friends to get to his grave easily, so the executors of his estate decided that we would have this second funeral service and would bury him in Woodlawn Cemetery. He also said, for some time past he had been advocating the placing of impressive monuments at the graves of performers who had created favorable sentiments for the race. Mr. Shipp added:

"People don't realize the value of the stage as an educational force in the elevation of races. It is a question whether the church or stage has done more in this direction. You all know too much about our friend's accomplishments for me to repeat his history here, but I remember an expression that he particularly liked:

"'Give me a few friends who will like me for what I am in old age and infirmity; teach me still to be thankful for life and for memories that are old and sweet.'

"And those friends are here, today."

Tears dripped over the folded hands of Lloyd Gibbs, and his usually cheerful countenance was a study in woe as Shipp finished his eulogy. Gibbs played in "Abyssinia" and "Roseann" with Gilpin.

ASK GOV. MYERS Y. COOPER FOR RECOGNITION.

The Laymen's League, Roy S. Rector, president, and Louis Williams, secretary, last week forwarded a strong set of resolutions to Gov. Myers Y. Cooper at Columbus, requesting him to appoint at least one Afro-American member of the state board of clemency and the state industrial commission. The league also asks for representation for our "men and women of character and standing" among the employees of the commission. All of which is but fair and less than Gov. Cooper promised his Afro-American supporters when a candidate, a year ago last fall. Indeed, Gov. Cooper has practically ignored, in his hundreds of appointments to office, his Afro-American constituents thruout the great state of Ohio. The appointment of "Rev." E. W. B. Curry, until recent months pastor of a Baptist church in Springfield, to a minor position at the head of a "jim-crow" bureau in the State Charities department is a negative one in that it hurts rather than helps both the governor and our people. It will be recalled, Curry was the "Negro" who opposed his own people and sided with the Ku Klux Klan element of Springfield, several years ago, in the "jim-crow" school fight which it took our people of that city several years to win. Director Hal Griswold of this department, a Clevelander, undoubtedly made the Curry appointment on the suggestion of Gov. Myers Y. Cooper, and it is about "the sum and total" of all the recognition given our people of the state of Ohio by the governor.
